“ I met & came to love Sandy at Oakland Baptist Church in Oakland, Kentucky. We shared wonderful fun and praise times in the ladies group. Her sweet disposition and always ready little laugh touched all of us. We have missed her and are sorry for her illness & passing. May God bless and comfort the family she loved so much.

“ Sandi was always fun to work with. When she was around work seemed like play. She was a great pal and confidant. God broke the mold when He made that precious lady. We have been friends over 30 years and I will always treasure time I was blessed to spend with her.

“ Sandi has been my family member for 41 years and during that time she has always been pure love. A Godly women who loved others and faced many obstacles in her.life including having beat cancer several times. She always faced these with an optimistic faith in God. She loved her children and grandchildren unconditionally. My wife, her sister, said she was the best older sister a person could have. As a child, with her light weight and strong muscles she was the best tree climber in the neighborhood. As an adult she wasn't immune to trying things either as my son took her scuba diving on a weekend family campout. Sandi was a diet Dr Pepper junkie, my teenage sons had no greater joy than punching a small hole in the can to convert it to a dribble can. They would also cut a slice in her straws so they wouldn't work. She always knew who did It and warned about paybacks. Her and her siblings were a force of five and things will never be the same without her. Her brother was the oldest, and I was always amazed when he came up with some crazy idea , how his 4 adult sisters would follow. They once took my street jeep out into the woods together, after a while the road stopped, they didnt. They almost got.It seriously stuck out in this national forest. If they had, we might of had to get a helicopter to get it out. Many special memories go thru your mind at times like these and Sandi contributed to them all. Like I said earlier, things will never be the same without her. Yet I know you are celebrating.with your grandparents, parents, grandchildren, and Lord Jesus in Heaven today.

“ I'm so sad to hear this! Mrs. Weiss was an angel sent to help our family in a time of need, and we are so blessed to have met her. Such a wonderful soul. I know she is rejoicing in heaven.
